RELIXEALWSON DIVORCED SOLD

MAY NAME ROWLAND MANAGER
New York Syndicate Reported to Have Taken Boston Team; Local Men Doubt It

Reports reached Boston today that the Red Sox had been sold to a syndicate of Boston and New York men.

Just who compose the syndicate is not stated. It is said, however, that Clarence Rowland, manager of the Chicago White Sox, presiding at the sale, had been chosen to pilot the team.

Local persons interested in the Red Sox both financially and as prospective buyers say they know nothing of the deal.

The Holland Trading Corporation, which has been reported to have bought the Sox, is said to have been organized in New York.

At the Federal Trust Company the story was not given much credence. One person closely affiliated with the Sox and the club said he did not believe the club had been sold.

"I think," said this man, "that if a deal had been consummated I would know. I doubt, however, that he has received the price, for I think that if I would hear of it before the Sox were sold."

An office of Fowler, Bates and Kent, attorneys for Joseph J. Lawton, in his recent litigation against the Sox, nothing was known of the sale.

Your letter dated March 24th, denying our request for a joint public discussion of the principal issues involved, has been received.

Boy's Life Saved by Stitching Heart
Philadelphia, March 24.—Twenty courses of blood were transfused to the arteries of seven-year-old Joseph Miller to-day in the Pennsylvania Hospital after stab wounds in his heart and one lung were closed with sutures. Physicians believe he has a chance of recovery.

The remarkable operation was performed by Dr. L. L. Hobbs, chief resident physician of the hospital, in the presence of fifteen prominent physicians who hastened there to see rare surgical skill employed to hold off what appeared to be certain death.

Four stitches were sewn in the wounded heart and one lung was sewed around the edge.

STOCK DIVIDEND TAX DEMANDED
Constitutional Amendment Proposed by Nelson Would Reach Every Form of Income

Washington, March 24.—A constitutional amendment giving Congress power to levy taxes on stock dividends "from whatever source obtained or in whatever manner issued," was introduced in the Senate this afternoon by Senator Nelson, Republican, Minnesota.

The amendment was referred to the Senate Judiciary Committee, of which Nelson is a member.

The amendment was intended to establish the right of Congress to tax stock dividends, a right denied it under the existing revenue law by a recent decision of the United States Supreme Court.

Nelson's proposal was to change the sixteenth amendment to the Constitution so as to have it read, by adding the words "including stock dividends from whatever source obtained or in whatever manner issued," as follows:

"The Congress shall have power to lay and collect taxes on incomes from whatever source obtained or in whatever manner issued, without apportionment among the several States, and without regard to any clause or enumeration."

HIGH JINKS FOR LAWSON DIVORCE
Claim Six-Year-Old Twins of Financier's Son Have Been Allowed to Smoke

Charges that Mrs. Arnold Lawson allowed her six-year-old twin boys, grandsons of Thomas W. Lawson, the financier, to smoke pipes and to use loose grown-up language will be made in the Superior Court Monday when Mr. Lawson enters suit for the custody of his children.

Eighteen detectives who have been relieving into the lives of Mrs. Lawson and Leonard Lawson, whom Arnold Lawson names as co-respondent in his suit for divorce against his wife, will appear when the first round of the legal battle for the four Lawson children opens.

The detectives who have worked under the direction of Attorney Edward Carr, it was announced at his office today, have unearthed a mass of evidence which promises to be all the more effective even for a divorce proceeding.

The detectives are operatives of the G. L. Oakes Detective Agency, whose offices are in the Carver Building.

The most astounding piece of evidence which, it is said, the operatives have gleaned, is that in alleged, the Lawson twins, six years of age, are

ACCUSES REALTY MEN IN STUART STREET CASE
"Following the refusal of the City Council to yield to the demands of a special group of real estate agents, these agents are now attempting to deprive the council of its right to Stuart street development," Senator George E. Curran of Roxbury charged in the Senate today.

The bill in the Senate would allow the street Commissioners and the Mayor, instead of the Council and Mayor, to go ahead with the development. Action was postponed to Tuesday.

Congressman Refused a Drink
Washington, March 24.—The Volstead dry law is no respecter of persons. No one is to be distinguished as a Congressman armed with a doctor's permit to buy whiskey, searched the town in vain today for a druggist with wet stock. He finally gave up in disgust.

Georges Bangs Biddle on Nose; Apologizes
New York, March 25.—Some thousand New Yorkers are ready to testify today that Georges Carpentier looks and acts like a fighter when he gets into fighting logs.

Georges hoisted a short exhibition bout with Major A. J. Drexel Biddle to the feature of a dinner given by the International Sporting Club.

The challenger for Dempsey's title is well muscled and a graceful performer.

Carpentier and Biddle boxed two rounds with Tex Rickard as referee. In the first round, though both men used heavy gloves, Carpentier let loose a crushing right which centred on the end of the major's nose.

The Frenchman promptly advanced toward his opponent with effusive apologies. Biddle did not mind the blow and smiled.

Throughout the first round Carpentier held the offense. In the second he contented himself with blocking Biddle's blows.

KONAPED BOY NOT READY FOR ESCAPES
Kentucky Lad, Locked in Hotel Room, Managers to Telephone Father

Lexington, Ky., March 24.—Paul Little, the twelve-year-old boy who was kidnapped here two days ago, escaped from his captors at 7 o'clock this morning.

He had been locked up for more than forty-eight hours in a bathroom adjoining a bedroom in the Phoenix Hotel. This morning his father left the room with the bathroom door unlocked. The boy crept out and seized the telephone. He called his home and a few minutes later his father, accompanied by Chief of Police J. J. Ryan and a squad of policemen, broke down the door.

$4,500,000 RAISE ON 'L' ASKED
Carmen Seek Maximum of 95 Cents an Hour; May Mean Increased Fares

That the Boston Elevated Railway is in no position to meet the latest demands of the Boston Carmen's Union was the intimation made today by James F. Jackson of the trustees.

The carmen ask for a new minimum wage of 73½ cents an hour and a maximum of 95 cents.

Under the State law the trustees are compelled to order an increase of fares in case of any deficit. Granting of the men's demands wholly or in part would bring about a deficit.

The Elevated is now paying its carmen $7,500,000 a year in wages. If the maximum demand is complied with between $4,000,000 and $4,500,000 will be added to the payroll.

Mr. Jackson said that the road was only beginning to catch up with its deficit and the fiscal year of June 30, 1920, with a surplus above expenses, but he said the latest demands were "a very serious matter," and the trustees would have to consider them carefully before acting.

FINNS ATTACKED BY BOLSHEVİK TROOPS
London, March 24.—A Central News dispatch from Christiania today indicated that the Russian Bolsheviks were on the offensive against the Finns, as well as the Poles. It stated that the Bolshevik troops had occupied Pechenka, driving the Finns northward.

NASON CANDIDATE FOR SENATE PRESIDENT
Senator Arthur L. Nason of Haverhill today announced his candidacy for President of the 1921 Senate to succeed President McKnight, who will retire from active politics at the end of the year.

Mr. Nason has had ten years in the House and Senate.

Germans at Jutland 'Stood Foe on Head'
Washington, March 26.—"The Germans stood the British on their heads at the battle of Jutland," Admiral Plunkett told the Senate investigating committee today. He attributed this to gunnery skill.

The admiral was testifying regarding the weakness of the U. S. navy in 1917.

PROBE MALDEN MAN'S DEATH
Foul Play Suspected in Case of A. W. Woodward in Meriden Hospital

That foul play is suspected in the death of Alvin W. Woodward of Malden became known today.

An autopsy was performed by Medical Examiner Charles F. McCaffrey of Middlesex County.

Woodward died recently in a private hospital in Meriden, Ct. Burns on the body and an ugly depression in the forehead led to the suspicion of violence.

Complaint was made by the man's daughter, Mrs. George Frost of No. 121 Blanchard street, Cambridge. Assistant District Attorney George Stanley Harvey is conducting the investigation.

Woodward was being treated for pneumonia at the hospital.

360 ARE IN PERIL ON SHIP
British Steamship Orteg, in South American Service, is in Distress

By International News Service. London, March 26.—The British steamship Orteg, with 360 passengers on board, is in distress at sea, according to a message received by the Lands End wireless station today.

The British steamship El Paraguay is rushing to her assistance. The Orteg is owned by the Pacific Steamship Navigation Company and plies between Europe and South American ports. The displacement 4,518 tons net.

New York, March 26.—Local headquarters of the Pacific Steamship Navigation Company were without news of any accident to the Orteg this afternoon.

It was stated that the steamship was scheduled to leave Liverpool yesterday, calling at La Rochelle, Paiton, France, and Spanish ports on her way to Cuban and South American ports.

the first theory advanced by the police and the one on which they began to work was that the man had been enticed to the room for the purpose of robbery. In repelling the attack on him he had struggled to death the unidentified man, only to be stabbed by the man who had led him into the trap and then escaped.

Mrs. Dorothy Parker, who conducts a rooming house, said that about a week ago she had rented the room to a man, believed to be the one found dead. She had not taken his name, however, and had not seen him since.

THREAT MADE TO KILL SENATOR

Fall Closely Guarded by Federal Agents for 72 Hours

Los Angeles, March 25.—That United States Senator A. B. Fall of New Mexico, chairman of the subcommittee of the Senate committee on Foreign Relations, during the last three days of his investigations here was under guard because of a death threat has become known here. Special agents of the Department of Justice did not leave the Senator's side for seventy-two hours, it is said. The threat came in the form of a letter written in Spanish, and is believed to have emanated from a Mexican element hostile to the Senator's investigation of American-Mexican conditions.

HAVE COLOR IN CHEEKS

Be Better Looking—Take Olive Tablets

If your skin is yellow—complexion pallid—tongue coated—appetite poor—you have a bad taste in your mouth—no good feeling—you should take Olive Tablets. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—a substitute for calomel—were prepared by Dr. Edwards after 17 years of study. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are purely vegetable and compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. To have clear, pink skin, bright eyes, no wrinkles, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days you must get the cause. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act on the liver and bowels like calomel—yet save no dangerous after effects. They start the bile and overcome constipation. Millions of boxes are sold annually at 30c and 50c. Take one or two nightly and note the results.

Alkali in Soap
Bad For the Hair

Soap should be used very carefully if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.
The best thing for steady use is Mulsated coconut oil shampoo (which is pure and gentle), and is better than anything else you can use.
One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub in. It makes an abundance of rich, downy hair, which shines like the hair of a baby.
The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft and healthy.
You can get Mulsated coconut oil shampoo at any pharmacy. It's cheap and a few ounces will supply every month of the family for months.—Advertisement.

TURKISH CRISIS LAID TO U. S.

Lloyd George Blames Delay on Treaty; 40,000 Armenians to Be Armed

London, March 24.—The Allies will arm 40,000 Armenians for self-defense against the Turkish oppressors. Premier Lloyd George announced in the House of Commons.

The premier expressed the hope that France would undertake the Armenian mandate.
He reiterated that the Turkish crisis was precipitated by the delay on the part of the United States in fulfilling the peace treaty and by America's refusal to accept the mandate for Armenia.

REVEREND LEAGUE TO PARADE.

Next Wednesday evening the Revere organization will parade and hold a big open air mass meeting at which representative Hays will speak and explain the aims of the Boston American Tenants' League.

The clubwomen of Greater Boston are extending great interest in the rapid growth of the league and are giving the Hays bill much study.

right of the Boston American against the profiteering landlord.

"The most outrageous," said Mrs. Porter, "is simply outrageous. I will take up the Hays bill with my club the Business League, at its next meeting the second Monday in April. Personally I am of the opinion that the public must control the matter of rents before the condition becomes irreparable. That landlords are profiteering anywhere they can, is undeniable. The amount of distress caused by this is very great."

APPROVES HAYS BILL.

Mrs. Low Stacey Wadsworth of Arlington, president of the Ladies' Aid at the Soldiers' Home, heartily endorses the Hays bill, and will bring the matter before her clubwomen at their next meeting, the first Thursday in April, for endorsement.

"I, of course, cannot say what action the club will take," said Mrs. Wadsworth. "But I believe it will endorse the bill. Certainly the Boston American has my personal endorsement of a bill which is so vital by necessary as the Hays bill. I have offered myself in this respect. Many of our club members have also offered."

"Exorbitant rents are a public matter, demanding action. We must all, as good citizens, hope that some remedy will be found."

Mrs. J. Malcolm Forbes of Milton, president of the League for Permanent Peace, will present to her board meeting, which meets the second Tuesday in April, the Hays bill for their consideration. "I shall be very pleased to present the bill," said Mrs. Forbes today to the American.

EARLY ACTION NEEDED.

Mrs. Felix Kornfeld, president of the Council of Jewish Women, will present the Hays bill to her board meeting for their action on the 8th of April. Mrs. Kornfeld feels that there is a genuine need for such a bill, she said.

"I am not yet an authority on the Hays bill, but so far as I am acquainted with it, I consider it a good bill, a well laid out. Of course, we are related to property owners know that many landlords have been up against it for years. Also we know that from $4 a ton for coal of some years ago, the increase has come to $12 and more. We know that taxes have increased. There is warrant for the landlords charging more rent. There is absolutely no warrant for them doubling their rents, as too many of them have. This is unreasonable in the extreme, a condition which cries out for immediate action. A law should be passed as soon as possible against undue profiteering. I shall be glad to put the Hays bill before my board meeting of the Council of Jewish Women for action."

Real estate matters will have a special hour looking after them at arm headquarters. Any exorbitant price asked by unreasonable landlords in this locality and any imposition upon army officers and enlisted men will be investigated.

Major George H. Hays of Washington will be assigned to the headquarters of the new department to keep a close eye upon real estate values and upon corresponding landlords who are getting too much out of officers for rent of buildings.

The Boston Commission on Housing and Renting organized at a meeting today in City Hall. All Boston renting matters and complaints pending investigation by the State Commission on the Necessaries of Life were turned over to the local body.

The Commission on the Necessaries of Life, which will go out of existence April 1, is following this same course in other parts of the State so fast as the local committees are appointed.

The latest seven to organize in Watertown. The committee there consists of John J. Gattigan, representing the labor unions, C. B. Young, bank official; Dr. Robert R. Quimby, board of health; Frederick B. Trickett, board of assessors; and Lieutenant W. Arthur Howard of the police department.

SENATE DELAYS DAYLIGHT BILL

Railroads' Influence Seen in
Postponing of Measure
Until Late in April

More than 100,000 people who by petition and through other forms of expression have recorded their desire for daylight saving to go into effect next Sunday are doomed to disappointment, for perhaps a month. The Senate not only postponed consideration of the daylight saving bill until next Tuesday, but it is understood that Senate members have given their assent to a tacit agreement to delay the operation of the proposed law until the last Sunday in April.

SEE RAILROADS' INFLUENCE.
The demand for delay is said to have originated with the railroads and to manifest the growing power of their interest in legislation now that they have returned to private control and are again setting up their lobby influence.

According to the report which prevailed today at the State House, the railroads withdrew their active opposition to daylight saving when it became evident that the bill was destined to pass the upper branch, but they went in the point of insisting that the operation of the law be delayed until the last of April.

Whether or not those reports are accurate, the Senate did delay the daylight saving law. The vote to postpone consideration, until next Tuesday was 17 to 14. Members of the Senate later admitted that an amendment to delay operation of the law until April 21 will be introduced later.

GOVERNOR READY TO SIGN.
The daylight saving bill passed the lower branch by a vote of 111 to 24. The House action was generally construed as reflecting the sentiment of the people for the law. The best information obtainable at the State House up to the time of the Senate's action, was that the bill would go through without delay and that Governor Coolidge was prepared to sign it.

The railroads are said to have demanded more time "in which to adjust ourselves to the change."

HAVERRILL HUSBAND SEEKS MISSING WIFE
Haverhill, March 24.—Arthur Ladebush, employed in the packing room at the factory of G. B. Leavitt & Co., has asked the police to locate his wife, who has been missing since last Friday, when she left the factory telling her husband to draw her pay.

Believing that the woman had gone to Boston to visit relatives, Ladebush went there, but failed to find her. The couple have two small children.

JUDGE FLYNN TO TAKE BENCH IN WORCESTER
Worcester, March 25.—Judge George A. Flynn of Brighton will have his first assignment as a Superior Court justice in Worcester. He is expected to take his seat on the Worcester bench Monday.

200 in Cast of Big Minstrel Show

MILDRED HARRINGTON.

Residents of Dorchester are looking forward with enthusiasm to the seventeenth annual minstrel show of the Catholic Club of Dorchester, which is to take place in Jordan Hall on the evenings of April 19 and 20. The show is being directed by George "Hotie" McDermott, who promises that this year's show will be the best ever. The cast consists of over 200, and there will be a general rehearsal tonight at the clubhouse, Barton square, at which it is hoped every member will be present.

One of the features is Mildred Harrington in the well known popular song "I Want a Daddy."

FRECKLES
March Worst Month for This Trouble
—How to Remove Easily.

There's a reason why nearly everybody freckles in March, but happily there is also a remedy for these ugly blemishes, and no one need stay freckled.

Simply get an ounce of Othine, double strength, from your druggist and apply a little of it right and morning, and in a few days you should see that even the most freckled have begun to disappear, while the light ones have vanished entirely. Now is the time to rid yourself of freckles, for if not removed now they may stay all summer, and spoil an otherwise beautiful complexion. Your money back if Othine fails.

Filene's Lab-tested VALUES!

RECENTLY a new fabric was offered to Filene's. Unusual merit was claimed for it. A quick decision was necessary. We could give a quick decision and still be sure we were protecting our customers' pocket book. For it was the work of only a few hours to send it to our own laboratory (right in the building) and test it, to see if it had the qualities claimed. This laboratory is a powerful factor in Filene's value-giving.

The Continental—Franklin at Washington St.

Boston's Greatest Clothing Store

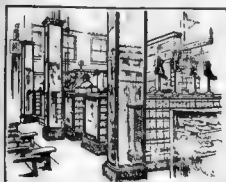

YOU all know and probably have all purchased clothes at the Continental, Washington, corner Boylston st. This store has been headquarters for good clothes for many years.

TODAY we have renewed our youth—for over six months we've been hard at work remodelling our beautiful store until it's strictly up to date.

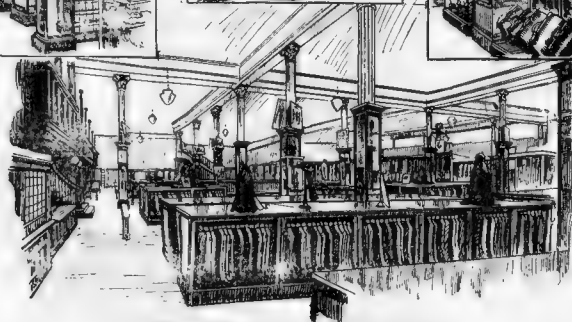

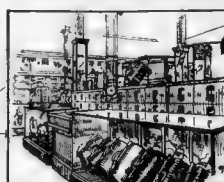

New Hat Department

New Shoe Department

Furnishing Goods Department

The Finest Clothing Department in the United States

WE'll tell you briefly what we have done—A new front remodeled on the latest modern ideas, with a wonderful corner entrance, the result of much study, and we believe the best anywhere.

Inside the store shows still greater improvements.

THE entire great room is changed into the most up-to-date clothing store. As you enter the corner doorway you'll find the enlarged Furnishing Goods Department with complete fixtures of the newest kind. The Hat Department is the most complete in Boston. The new Shoe Department for men's and women's shoes comes next and is a pleasant department to trade in. FROM the rear of the store the entire floor is devoted to men's and young men's clothes, fitted with the newest ideas in Grand Rapids floor cases and wall cases.

Take the Elevator to Boys' Department

YOU'D hardly know the bright, light room, as it's now re-fitted and modernized up to the minute. The ladies tell us the finest department in New England.

Boston's Youngest Clothing Store

May 9, 1918, we opened the entire building (four floors) at the corner of Franklin and Washington sts., the store that's been the wonder of the clothing trade.

Just such a store seemed to have been needed in this location, as we did a most satisfactory business from the start.

The second year started with increasing sales—over double the initial year—and today there seems no limit to the business we can do.

We saw we should need more room and took a lease of the chambers in the next building and are adding them as fast as we can get possession.

This store is a specialty store and sells exclusively Hart Schaffner & Marx guaranteed clothes.

You know they are the best in America and are sold with the guarantee of satisfaction or your money back.

Blossom Out in New Spring Clothes!

We predict that the Fashion Show of a week from Sunday will be the greatest and most notable ever recorded in the history of this good old town. You'll want to be a part of it, of course, and with our help you'll be eligible to march in the front rank.

This Live Store is ready, now as always, to meet every Good Clothes demand of American men and boys, and to meet those demands more fully, more satisfactorily and more economically than anyone else.

Our crystal-glass cases are full to overflowing with the choicest garments produced in America—rich fabrics, exceptional tailoring, graceful models in the most approved styles. And they're sensible clothes, too—dependable, durable, as satisfying in their long wear as they are pleasing in their fine appearance.

Coupled with such merchandise, our greater value-giving takes on new meaning and an added attraction. For it's not the extravagance of cheap clothes cheap that we offer our customers, but the economy of the best the market affords at prices that are remarkably low for such goods.

Indications point to a tremendous business here next week. It will be to our mutual advantage and convenience if you can come early in the week and early in the day.

Drop in and see the new style ideas as portrayed in Kuppenheimer Spring Suits at $40 and up

Men's styles are more sensible than they used to be. A lot of the "jazz" has been left out. Simplicity and saneness are the leading characteristics this season, especially in these masterpieces from The House of Kuppenheimer, which, as usual, took the lead in the creation of these "he-man" American styles.

These delightfully good fitting, good feeling and good looking suits come in a wonderful selection of fabrics in countless colorings and patterns—all pure wool, of course, pre-shrunk and silk-sewn, and finished with that high degree of nicety for which Kuppenheimer is famous. Sizes to fit all men—ALL, we said.

FEVER EPIDEMIC LAID TO MILK

Illness at Brown University Not

Alarming: Sessions to Be

Resumed April 8

Providence, March 26.—The low standard of milk was responsible for the epidemic of fever at Brown University, it was learned today. The epidemic, which began last week, was caused by the use of milk from a farm near the university.

Dr. Charles L. Thomas, superintendent of health, has been asked to investigate the epidemic. The epidemic is not alarming, and the sessions of the university will be resumed on April 8.

SOCIETY WOMAN HEADS SALVAGE CAMPAIGN
Newport, R. I., March 25.—The League, of which Mrs. John Phillips Brown is president, has started its spring salvage campaign. Though the collection will not be made until the last of May, householders are asked to begin to save articles. The league's proportional part of the proceeds has been increased by two cents a pound.

ANTHRACITE OPERATORS OFFERING COMPROMISES
New York, March 25.—Anthracite operators have begun the presentation of compromise offers to the sub-committee of the United Mine Workers, in conference here on a new wage scale for the hard coal fields. The miners have concluded explanation of their demands, which included a six-hour day.

WIDOW, 53, WEDS ARDENT YOUTH

Brooklyn Teacher's Effort to Escape Fierce Wooing of Boy War Hero Fails

Youngstown, O., March 24.—"I care for him very much indeed," he loved his professed affection for me might only be a passing fancy, so I ventured to lose myself in the world completely, leaving to me by which he might carry out his repeated intention of following me wherever I should go and inducing me to marry him. He found me at last upon his return from France, as something what all the pure and delicate could not do, and raising as much for each other as we did there was really nothing was for us to do, so we were married.

WEDS YOUTH OF 23
So explained Mrs. Russell L. Richman, formerly Mrs. Mary Hoffman, aged thirty-three years, a Brooklyn school teacher, who has started housekeeping with her pupil husband, Russell L. Richman, aged twenty-three years, in this city. After one of the strangest romances in history, Mrs. Hoffman and young Richman were married in Warren, O., on March 1, in an effort to escape the youthful author Mrs. Hoffman had fled from her friends, relatives and nation. Yet two years Richman was over again, during which he fought in the trenches, and not a single letter was written to him by Mrs. Hoffman, who believed that when the lad would return from France all would be forgotten and she could return to Brooklyn.

TRACKED BY PIANO BOX.
But when Richman returned from the war he again took up the search for the widowed teacher. One day he saw a piano box about to be loaded on a truck. It bore the name of the missing widow. From the address Richman traced Mrs. Hoffman, and though she refused to see him at first, he persisted. They met, and declared he would never give her up so he consented to the marriage.

ALL LIBERTY IN IRELAND IS REPORTED WIPED OUT

An especially appointed British Parliamentary Labor Commission to investigate conditions in Ireland reported that "while on private homes and a common occurrence, a gathering of three or more persons in a public assembly, the famous Irish trade and markets, an essential part of Irish trade, are wiped out, trade meetings, national games and musical, festival and dramatic societies are forbidden." While the report has been suppressed in Ireland the facts are printed, and in next Sunday's Boston Sunday Advertiser.

SOLDIER JUST MARRIED ARRESTED AS A. W. O. L.

Attleboro, March 25.—Private Floyd Raymond, soldier of Company E, Thirtieth Infantry, U. S. A., who was sent here on recruiting service and was married Mrs. Blanche Isabelle Lee, of New York after being refused a marriage license by City Clerk Frank J. Babcock, of Attleboro, returned here with his bride and was immediately hauled under military arrest by Lieutenant William F. Crooks on a charge of disobedience of orders. His superior officer's name was absent without leave.

H. C. L. NOT BURDENSOME, IS REDFIELD'S OPINION

New York, March 25.—William C. Redfield, secretary of commerce speaking before the Thirty-fourth Street Board of Trade at its luncheon in the Hotel Pennsylvania declared the high cost of living was not burdensome. "Why, according to statistics," said Mr. Redfield, "one person out of every three in the State has an income of less than $1,000 a year. Although we are living in a hard time, we are not at the same time as we were in the history of our country."

STALLINGS DISCOVERS NEW TWIRLER FOR HIS BOSTON BALL TRIBE

By TAD HAGEN

Eastman, Ga., March 26.—This world continues to look like a grand old place to George Stallings and the Boston Braves, not to mention E. M. Haggood, who is very busy raking in the well-known guarantees. The athletes tucked the third game in the locker at Valdosta, and were all primed to make it four in a row in this place, as the advance agent announced a grand rush on tickets. The B. M. and the Pros. are perfectly content.

The Braves, incidentally, have discovered a pitcher who promises to be a very useful bird before the leaves turn brown and everything in the Fall. Eddie Kuyper, sometimes called "The Tiger," is a very good ball player, and he is doing all the time. Though he has been out-fiddling for a couple of years, he hasn't forgotten the hurling art, and Stallings will undoubtedly get him to good advantage from now on.

These games are showing that Horace Ford is rapidly acquiring the knack of hitting them safe, with which he is likely to startle the big league. His first two trips to the Maunula mound resulted in double and were very intimately connected with the Braves' morning.

Performs Very Well on Bush Diamonds
Horace looks as good as ever in the field and even on the soft, dusty fields of the minor leagues. He is a good player, and he is doing all the time. Though he has been out-fiddling for a couple of years, he hasn't forgotten the hurling art, and Stallings will undoubtedly get him to good advantage from now on.

Another thing that is sticking out in the manner in which Tony Hoelzel is handling. Tony is a very good player, and he is doing all the time. Though he has been out-fiddling for a couple of years, he hasn't forgotten the hurling art, and Stallings will undoubtedly get him to good advantage from now on.

With Maranville back, the infield will look much more solid. Tony Hoelzel is a very good player, and he is doing all the time. Though he has been out-fiddling for a couple of years, he hasn't forgotten the hurling art, and Stallings will undoubtedly get him to good advantage from now on.

Ping Bodie Is Fired, Says Huggins
Jacksonville, Fla., March 26.—Ping Bodie is no longer a member of the New York Yankees, according to manager Huggins. Bodie asked permission to leave New York to fix up some family matters. Huggins said he thought the team was not important enough for him to be in Jacksonville and he refused his request. He replied, "I am going home." He left, and he is no longer on the New York club.

To date Stallings has had the hurling and as he says any team will look good with real pitching. But when he works his string out it's likely to be a very good one.

Small Richard Rudolph was billed to perform at Maunula but asked for a vacation after he had a week of the early, sloppy day. He was a bit afraid of putting a Charlie Hulse in the navy for today, provided conditions were right. The Yankees' Haggood League are certainly not likely to be out-fiddling for a couple of years, he hasn't forgotten the hurling art, and Stallings will undoubtedly get him to good advantage from now on.

Expenses Pretty Well Paid by Now
In Maunula a great crowd is expected on while the first tryout with the A. L. crew, and thumped Phipps Cox and O'Brien rather violently. Enough money has been taken in already to just about cover expenses for the trip.

It looks like a good year. The Braves got two runs each in the first and second frames of the game which only used up an hour and a half of the best Southern time. The Tigers' loss tally came in the eighth, and only because Beckel missed up the rap that Ripper, first up, splashed at him. Ripper, first up, splashed at him. Ripper, first up, splashed at him.

Just patch up the pitching department and the patrons of the wagon will likely see a pretty good outfit.

EDDIE COLLINS IS KING OF SECOND SACKERS

By HUGH S. FULLERTON.

Eddie Collins, premier second baseman of the land, still leads all according to the dope, and in spite of his showing in the World's Series. Many of the dopests calculate that Collins slipped in the World's Series and base some on his batting average, but a study of the figures of the series shows that Collins, in the face of perhaps the most grueling punishment a player ever faced, showed his gameness and wonderful skill.

The fact that in one game alone Collins hit five line smashes straight at outfielders, shows that he was hitting the ball over with the pitching staff of the field's specially coached and drilled to stop him.

His figures, based on last year's performance, show a slight decrease, and still are within a dozen points of what the dope accused him a year ago.

In the National League the dope shows that the claim that Rogers Hornsby is the class of the second sackers, and he holds a lead in both offense and defense in spite of the work of Cushman, who by the way is one of the most underrated of the really classy second basemen of the country. A study of the figures will show that Hornsby is a very good player, year after year for a long time, ought to be enough to satisfy his critics.

Herzog puts Cubs in Third Place
Charlie Herzog spots the Cubs in third place among the second basemen. Herzog, beyond doubt, is one of the gamest and hardest fighting second basemen in the game. He did not really get down to work until this last season, after he had been with the Cubs and he evidently has found the spot and the team suit him. Look for a big year for the veteran.

There is one thing about which I want to caution readers of this dope. It is in a comparison of league leaders. Some have gained the idea in other years that league leaders in one or more of the figures of the regular season in any position, depend not only on themselves but upon his team, and

Red Sox Now Lead Giants in Series
San Antonio, March 26.—The Red Sox jumped into the lead in their series with the Giants by whitewashing the latter, 3 to 0. Allan Russell pitched line ball for the Barrowites, holding the New York players to three hits.

There probably will be some surprise expressed at the low rating of the St. Louis Browns in the dope on second base. I have arbitrarily reduced the figures greatly because of a condition of which I happen to know that will cause this reduction before the season starts. Unfortunately I am unable to comment upon it, but it may become public property before this is printed.

It also may be protested that Cleveland is rated too low. The figures, however, are closer to Rath's real worth than any based upon his last season's performance would be. Rath had a fine year, and played magnificent ball. I hope he repeats and the team inspiring conditions he might go through this year at the club he held during most of last season. However, he has been long in the business to give him full credit for the best year he has had.

The National League second sackers are a bit more closely matched in the dope than are the American League. Cleveland's strength at second seems to be increasing and New York holds up in the higher ranks in spite of Pratt's exceeding otherwise which is becoming more and more evident.

Fort Revere Leads in Coast Defence Meet
The Fort Revere team, by scoring 21 points, took the lead over Fort Banks, Fort Strong, Fort Warren and Fort Andrews in the events contested in the coast defence athletic meet at Fort Warren. This gives Fort Revere the lead in the inter-barracks contests, as it started the day five points behind Fort Banks, and by scoring 14 to the big Fort 23 made the score 14 to 13. Fort Strong scored 11 points, but Fort Warren and Fort Andrews failed to furnish a winner.

Herman Beats Johnson
Jersey City, N. J., March 26.—Pete Herman of New Orleans, world's bantamweight title holder, defeated Patry Johnson of Trenton in an eight-round bout here.

B. U. Wrestlers Mix With Boxers
The first of a series of boxing and wrestling tournaments at Boston University was held at Canton last night. The event was a double event, with boxing and wrestling. The first of the boxing bouts was between Davis of Tufts and Delmonico of B. U. wrestled fifteen minutes in a draw. In the 110-pound class Kadla of the B. U. School of Law beat Cherry of the B. U. College of Business Administration. Lorne of C. B. A. knocked out Corbin of Law School in the second round.

In the feature bout of the evening was the bout of the College of Business Administration staged a wonderful comeback after being knocked down several times in the first round, winning the decision in the final round from Blanchard of B. U. Law.

George V. Brown of the B. A. A. was the guest of honor, being introduced to the B. U. men for the first time by Professor Harry B. Carter. Mr. Brown, who has been busy working on an athletic policy for Boston University since his recent appointment as athletic director, was the chief speaker of the evening.

By TAD HAGEN
Almost every day I am asked whether I intend to apply to become an amateur golfer or remain in the professional ranks. I have answered this so many times personally that I feel as though a printed line or two about my intentions would be the proper thing.

In leaving the Oakland Hills Club at Detroit I felt that I was not breaking away from my associations with the amateur and professional golf. I preferred to play golf rather than to teach it, and when the opportunity came to me to enter a business that had no connections whatsoever with the game, I jumped at it. Mr. Wallace, with whom I am associated, assured me that I could play golf and take in all of the championships, including the British Open and the French Open.

I never had the slightest thought about becoming an amateur when I made this move. I have not the slightest idea of becoming an amateur and it always surprises me when this is suggested. If I did want to change my mind I would not take any money as prize, which would be a very simple thing, but I cannot see why being a pro isn't as honorable a profession as anything else that a man could do.

I can't see why I should become an amateur. It stands to reason that I could win the National Open twice that I could win the amateur championship, but it could not possibly add anything to my reputation as a golfer. The big event of the year is the open, where both amateurs and pros battle for the title. I am content to try each year for this honor and let it go at that.

Feels Proud of Amateur Cup
Years ago I played as an amateur. I have in my possession a little cup that I won in a tournament. It is a very small cup, but it is a very good one. I have it in my possession as a reminder of the time when I was an amateur. I have it in my possession as a reminder of the time when I was an amateur.

HIGH RECORD PRICE

FOR MARCH COTTON

When the March option sold on Tuesday last at 41.15, or at $11.15 a bale, a high record price was established. The chief reason for the advance to that March contract price so soon after the close of the month was that the market was so much better than it had been for some time. The market was so much better than it had been for some time. The market was so much better than it had been for some time.

In fact, there are only 12,000 bales of cotton on hand with which to complete contracts of sale. But in the South there have been delays in planting and one reason for the small stock in the North.

FOOT-BOUND U.S. GIRLS SCORED

Missionary Claims Fifth Avenue Women Are Emulating Their Chinese Sisters

While declaring the fact that only 45 per cent. of the children of the American school, as compared with 95 per cent. in Japan, Miss Honsinger, a worker with the Woman's Foreign Mission Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, urged Boston University girls to consider seriously life work in China, Japan, South America and other undeveloped portions of the world. She spoke before several hundred students in Jacob Shivers Hall, under the auspices of the Student Volunteers.

Miss Honsinger, who spent ten years in China, and plans to return next fall, spoke of her disillusionment on returning to America. "Walking up Fifth Avenue, I immediately joined the Anti-Footbinding Society in America. Footbinding is the most terrible thing I have ever seen. It is a cruel and barbarous custom which China to talk on the street corners of America against footbinding."

She described how the Chinese girl, at the age of thirteen, has her feet bound, and how she is kept in that position until she is twenty-five. She said that she had seen many girls who had been bound, and that they were often found in the streets, begging for food. She said that she had seen many girls who had been bound, and that they were often found in the streets, begging for food.

She said that she had seen many girls who had been bound, and that they were often found in the streets, begging for food. She said that she had seen many girls who had been bound, and that they were often found in the streets, begging for food.

MEASURES THAT WOULD CURE MOST OF THE TROUBLES AND TENDENCIES WHICH DISTRESS AND ALARM US TODAY

- (1) To nominate for the Presidency by direct nomination and to elect by popular vote.
- (2) To elect the Cabinet officers and make them responsible to Congress.
- (3) To deprive the President of the power of patronage; to put all public offices as nearly as possible under Civil Service, and have appointments made by a committee of Congress.
- (4) To elect Federal Judges, including the Supreme Court Justices, by popular vote.
- (5) To apply the Initiative, the Referendum and the Recall to national matters.

Keep Good American Money at Home, Under Protection

There is a peculiar significance in the attempt to pass laws in the State Legislatures permitting savings banks to invest in foreign securities—principally British.

Every American who is of legal age and sane has a right to invest his own money as he pleases.

But it has heretofore been the policy of the States to require savings banks to guard the interests of their depositors with peculiar care.

All bank funds are trust funds, but savings banks are not commercial, they are investors of the small savings of many people, including widows, orphans and minors. The degree of risk recognized as appropriate in the ordinary transactions of business banking has, therefore, not been deemed wise in the management of savings accounts.

To empower the executives of savings funds even to consider the purchase of foreign bonds or stocks in the present disturbed condition of the world is to introduce a new and speculative element in savings accounts.

It is also to place needless temptation before men who should be far removed from a wish to speculate.

Our wisest international bankers confess that they are none too well equipped to read the future of international affairs with confidence. The managers of savings banks, as a class, are not expert in this field.

But what lends the gravest suspicion to this effort to tap American savings for foreign governments is the manner in which it is being conducted.

For reasons now seen to be good and sufficient, the United States Government declined to make European loans beyond the $10,000,000,000 loan to our war associates during the war.

All attempts to entice it into a general pooling of money and credits, whereby the bankrupt or semi-bankrupt European powers hoped to unload their burdens upon us, were successfully resisted.

Such a pooling was impossible without the consent of Congress. That meant public knowledge and public discussion, and both were fatal to it.

Equally unsuccessful on any large scale was the effort of Europe to negotiate loans through international banking houses. These well-informed bankers knew that they would have great difficulty in distributing such loans directly through the usual investment channels.

The investment market in the United States is still suffering from the sale in less than two years of $25,000,000,000 of Liberty bonds. It is also aware of the large financing that will be required to meet the domestic needs of reconstruction.

There remained only one untried avenue—the savings banks.

Now, it is very significant that no recognized leader in the field of savings banking has appeared in open advocacy of a revision of the traditional legal safeguards in this field.

The initiative for this new crop of laws to jimmy the deposits in American savings banks into the clutches of Europe did not proceed from the savings banks.

Indeed, its origin is as mysterious as are its methods of operation.

No one stands sponsor for it. No one dares publicly to defend it. Yet in at least three of our richest States this curious law resembling billions of dollars of the American people's hard-earned savings for dubious European investment has slipped through both branches of the Legislature and underneath the Governor's approving pen, while not until the fourth State—Rhode Island—was reached did the accidental presence of an inquisitive reporter produce publicity and "spill the beans."

A measure with such a pedigree stands self-condemned.

But though mystery attends the promotion of this ingenious bit of financiallegerdemain, there is not a shred of mystery as to what it all means. One of our readers has comprehended the purpose in a sentence:

Having acquired virtually all the cotton-growing land outside the United States, most of the oil-producing land outside the American continent, the bulk of the ore-producing land outside North America, and many other natural resources, all Great Britain wants is money for development. She wants American money to finance her world-enterprises.

The savings of America are safest in America!

At Least Do Not Continue to Bet on the Wrong Horse

David Lawrence, a close observer, "assumes" that Bainbridge Colby as Secretary of State means "a new Mexican policy, a new Russian policy, a new Far Eastern policy."

We hope so.

If so, no time should be lost in starting. A good place to begin would be in Berlin, where one Ellis L. Drossel, described as "head of the American mission," is reported as having presumed to tell the German people what kind of government their government would prefer.

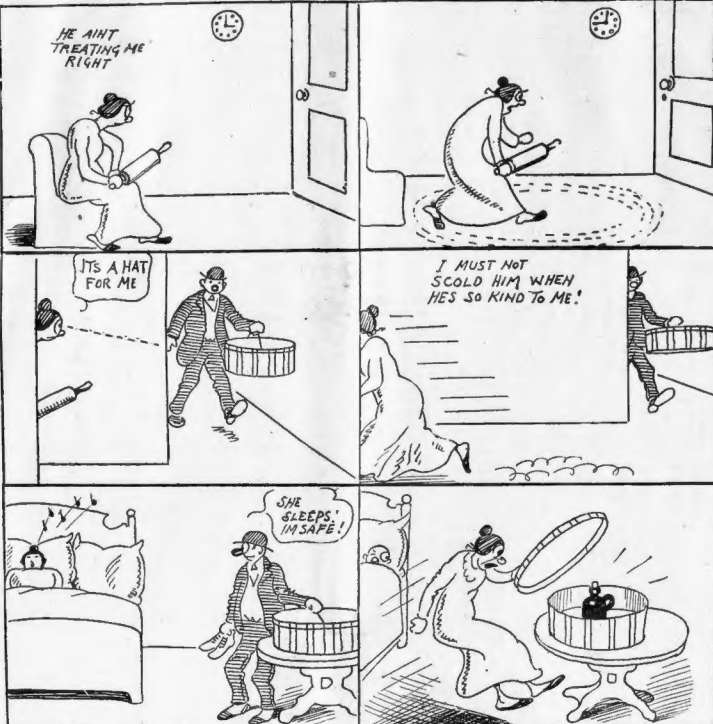

This, of course, is our old, meddling Russian policy over again. That policy didn't impress Russians. It is as little likely to impress Germans.

Apart from the duty of protecting American interests, it is not the function of our government to interfere with old world affairs. The Senate has just voted down the interference policy, and the people, it is safe to say, will uphold the Senate.

But if the present executive cannot, during the short remainder of his term, repress his ambition to interfere, we hope Secretary Colby will not continue the Lanning habit of helping always to interfere on the wrong side.

More Truth Than Poetry

The Reign of Pure Reason

By S. E. Kiser

I AM through being merely a fool
For the use of political tinkers;
No longer a boss-ridden fool,
I line myself up with the thinkers;
I will rise above party, and try
Henceforth to be guided by Reason;
I will not be alarmed by the cry
That sensible thinking is treason!
I WILL cease to be swayed by mere names,
No empty alarms shall confuse me;
I will judge with cold fairness the claims
Of those who may coax or abuse me.
Not party, but country I'll try
To serve when I make my decision;
No longer a follower, I
Will rise above praise and derision.
I HAVE chosen my course; I will not
Be one of the herd any longer;
I've been urged by emotion, but thought
Shall now be the livelier, stronger!
I've deserted my party; at last
I see that there's nothing I owe it.
When it's time for the votes to be cast
I'll weaken again, and I know it.

WHY DO PEOPLE ASK FOOLISH QUESTIONS?

One of the duties of people who write letters to editors asks, "What is a proof-thing?" After an experience that has been almost heartrending, we have decided that he is any one from whom we find it necessary to buy anything.

THE MODERN AVESION

Say my hair is turning gray,
Say I'm old, it will not matter;
Say my youth is gone, but, pray,
Do not say I'm getting fatter.

Y^e TOWNE GOSSIP

Registered U. S. Patent Office.
By K. C. B.

Dear K. C. B.—When you left for the West you said that you went up to see Mr. Hearst, way up in some skyscraper or whatever it was. Anyway, you saw him. Now, I read every word that Mr. Hearst writes, and I love and admire him for his grand Americanism and the great fearlessness for truth and justice that he is.

And now, K. C. B., what I want you to do is this: Use your influence, or whatever it is that you have with Mr. Hearst, and get him to print his picture in the paper and fill it out and hang it on the wall beside Lincoln's.

Now, if you haven't any influence or whatever it is that you need, and he won't print his photo and you can't make him, just describe to me so I'll know how he looks.

I'm glad you didn't have the smallpox and that you are better, and whatever you had you haven't it any more. I thank you, K. C. B.,
Los Angeles, Cal.

MY DEAR M. E. F.
WHATEVER IT IS.
THAT I happen to have.
WITH MR. Hearst.
I'M GOING to keep it.
AND I'll like to ask him.
TO PRINT his picture.
BUT HE might refuse.
AND I have a record.
OF JUST connecting.
TO WHATEVER I've asked.
SINCE I've worked for him.
AND YOU'll agree.
I'D MAKE a mistake.
IF I took a chance.
AND ASKED him something.
HE WOULDN'T do.
AND SO I can't.
BUT WHEN I get home.
I'LL FIND a way.
OF GETTING a photo.
AND IF you'll write.
WHAT YOUR real name is.
I'LL send it along.
AND I'D like to say.
WHILE I'M writing this.
THAT WHENEVER it happens.
YOU FIND a man.
WHO HAS the respect.
OF ALL of the men.
WHO WORK for him.
AND GIVE the best.

OF WHAT THEY HAVE.

THEN IT'S very likely.
THAT SUCH A man.
IS a real big man.
AND I'M just one.
OF THOUSANDS of men.
ON THE same payroll.
AND THE money I got.
IS JUST MY pay.
AND IT buys no more.
BUT THERE'S something else.
THAT THAT one thing.
THAT GOES beyond.
WHERE THE payroll is.
AND IT buys from me.
A DEEP belief.
IN THE man I serve.
AND YOU'RE quite right.
IN WHAT you say.
AND I'LL steal the photo.
AND SEND IT along.

I THANK you.

WORLD GOING MAD, SAYS ENGLISH DOCTOR

By Dr. Grant Ramsay
(Principal of the London Institute of Hygiene.)

LONDON, March 24.—The world has never been so insane as it is today. Young men and impressionable women are most affected, but all have come under the influence of the terrible strain of the past few years. Crime and immorality are rampant, and, as mental disease can be infectious, the outbreak of crime should be dealt with as an epidemic liable to spread.

Two peaceful revolutions are prominent today. The labor cause and woman's so-called emancipation. The one affects the country's future and the other the future race, but both are going too fast. The woman's movement is marked less by emancipation than by climbing down to the level of men. Many desire to save women from the strain of professional and commercial life, but, while deprecating the excesses, justice demands that every woman should be free and open to them.

The doctrine of prohibition is scientifically false, because stimulants serve a useful purpose in their proper place and are a necessity to the weak and aged. But no young, healthy people require stimulants, which should be prohibited to all under twenty.

Slugs have always been a problem, and many of those who live in them would make slugs wherever they went. I suggest as a hygienic remedy that fresh air, under pressure, should be brought into every home. Gas—a deadly poison—was brought in by not bringing the most essential element of life and health to be turned on without limit, like fresh water.

Letters to the Editor

Showing Up System

Editor Boston American:
I am a constant reader of the Boston American and a great booster of its methods in showing up certain things. I was overreached by the First Division, and I know now that the American was barred from us. But nevertheless we are copies, and when we did everybody wanted a look at the paper that was barred from the fighting men because it told the truth. Was over there twenty-seven months, wounded twice, cited twice and still looking for a man-size job from our ever-grateful public. Hope to see more of the Boston American's "showing-up system."

DAVID B. STUART.

For the Downtrodden

Editor Boston American:
Although not printed here, we feel that the Boston American is as much our paper. It has risen triumphant over all its past enemies, and its principles are the same as when it first started. Always ready to find in its pages a spoon in which to plead for the unfortunate and the downtrodden ones for whom nobody else cares.
MRS. JENNIE C. DEVORE
Providence.

Broadens Outlook

Editor Boston American:
I was recently converted to the Boston American by my wife, who insists on my getting it every night. I am not a bit sorry now for I take great pleasure in reading the broad-minded editorials that appear in it, and it has tended to broaden my own outlook on several questions that are before the public today.

EFFECT OF CLIMATE ON MAN'S ENERGY

By Garrett P. Serviss

IN a remarkable lecture on "Climate and the Evolution of Civilization" Ellsworth Huntington quotes a stimulating remark of Darwin's to the effect that "the latent capacities with which most men are endowed are so great that inherent ability is less important than zeal and determination, or in other words, the energy with which that ability is used."

To this Mr. Huntington adds: "In our own experience we have seen scores of times good ideas—perhaps revolutionary ideas—withered by the heat of the summer or a day, only to forget them because we had not the energy to undertake the hard work necessary to bring them to fruition."

Mr. Huntington's thesis is the controlling influence of climate in the development and maintenance of human efficiency. He goes so far as to suggest that the greatest factor in the fall of Rome was a change in the Italian climate. In support of these views he adduces such curious things as the coincidence in time between the plagues of growth of the giant trees of California and the climatic changes around the Mediterranean and in Central Asia.

Tree Rings as Records

Trees that have stood for from 1,000 to 2,000 years leave, in the "rings of growth" in their trunks, a graphic record of the wetness or dryness, and of the relative temperature, of successive periods of time. So, in the Sierra region of California, a Sequoia may be said to have been making for our use a meteorological note at the time when Caesar invaded Britain, and another when Attila ravaged Rome.

But this implies a substantial uniformity of the climatic changes. If not everywhere, at least in places separated by half the circumference of the globe. The truth that, it might be supposed, would go parallel fluctuations in the energy of widely scattered tribes and races of men.

To account for the nervelessness of the once unconquerable Romans in contrast with the tremendous driving power of the barbarians who overran their empire, it is necessary, on this hypothesis, to predicate a decided deterioration of the climate of Italy as compared with that of central and northeastern Europe.

Human Efficiency

If the theory of climatic influence over human efficiency is accepted to its fullest extent, another interesting factor comes in to play, and that is the deterioration of the climate of Italy as compared with that of central and northeastern Europe. It is necessary, on this hypothesis, to predicate a decided deterioration of the climate of Italy as compared with that of central and northeastern Europe.
